

Come to listen
global managers experiences!

Experience of Managers in a Global Environment

Thursday 30th of April - 16:15 to 17:45 – RB211

JUSTUS BIRLENBACH

SERGIO RAZO

HUSSEIN SHOBOKSHI

MARTIN VRBA

JUSTUS BIRLENBACH

Certified Project Manager Professional specialized in project budgeting, leading and coordinating formal/virtual teams, organizational change management, management of stakeholder expectations and the overall life cycle of mid-sized projects (<7M EUR).

He has over 10 years of ERP implementation end-to-end experience covering project management, business and IT consulting, solution architecture with standard and custom SAP applications, including global SAP transformation projects in heterogeneous system landscapes. This also includes multiple full SAP life cycle implementations in diversified industries, countries and cultures.

SERGIO RAZO

Originally from Mexico City, has been living abroad for 10+ years. He is known for his love for traveling and interest in cultural diversity.

Prior to joining Emerson Electric as a Business Analyst, he made his career in multinational companies like PricewaterhouseCoopers and Ariba (a SAP Company). His work experience is mostly notable in Project Management, Internal Audit and Financial Analysis.

He holds a degree in MBA; an specialization on Corporate Governance; and Professional Qualification Certificate in Business Accounting.

On his free time he organizes self-development programs funded by the European Union, focused on Emotional Intelligence and Emotional Healing.

HUSSEIN SHOBOKSHI

Saudi businessman, Honorary Consul of the Czech Republic in Saudi Arabia, and Chairman of the Czech-Saudi Chamber of Commerce.

A regular columnist in London based Arabic publication Asharq Al Awsat and Saudi based English newspaper Saudi Gazette. He has featured as a commentator in CNN, CBS, PBS, Orbit, Future, LBC, Abu Dhabi TV, Al Jazeera, ESC and MBC television shows and hosted his own Arabic economic TV program in the recent past. He has also figured in the Time magazine, the Wall Street Journal and the Financial Times publications.

He has given and continues to give lectures in the Middle East, Europe and the U.S. which includes institutions like: The Council on Foreign Relations, Middle East Institute, Georgetown University, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Middle East Policy Council and Arab-US Media Forum in Luxor and Dubai.

In 1995, he was chosen as one of “Global Leaders for Tomorrow” by the World Economic Forum (WEF).

MARTIN VRBA

President of the Czech-Saudi Chamber of Commerce and Managing Partner for International Acquisitions at G5 Plus. His work is mainly focused on 20 years of experience in international recruitment of health professionals, especially nurses and physiotherapists. He represents the largest number of foreign medical facilities for the Czech Republic and Slovak Republic. It provides HR services to medical facilities in the United States, Ireland, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain and Qatar, and is gradually expanding its offer to other countries.

His work provide the company with long-term clients worldwide making the company awarded as the "Best Western Recruiter" (Best Western: acknowledges the intermediary employment) from the largest chain of prestigious JCI accredited hospitals in the Middle East. This long relationship with these countries are the based to become the President of the Czech-Saudi Chamber of Commerce.