Acta Oeconomica Pragensia is a peer-reviewed scientific journal of the Faculty of Management, University of Economics, Prague. The journal publishes results of applied economic research in the English, Czech and Slovak languages. It contains original peer-reviewed scientific papers applying both qualitative and quantitative methods of investigation, including contributions demonstrating possibilities of using exact methods to support decisions of different economic agents. It is published six times a year.

The journal is indexed in ERIH Plus (European Reference Index for the Humanities and Social Sciences), EconLit (American Economic Association), Cabell’s International, EBSCO (Business Source Corporate Plus), RePEc/EconPapers, DOAJ (Directory of Open Access Journals), Google Scholar, EconBiz, and ResearchBib.

What we can offer to you
- Quick and transparent communication between authors and editors.
- Quick and quality double-blind review (first round of review is completed in approx. 4 weeks).
- English language proofreading for free.
- No publishing fees, no article processing charges.
- Publishing in a non-predatory scientific journal with a tradition since 1993.

What we expect from authors
- Original scientific articles with international relevance. Articles should be an output of authors’ research projects or PhD theses. We prefer articles with a theoretical background, “state of the art” based on high-quality resources, advanced methodology and significant results for theory/practice.
- High-quality critical reviews with scientific merit based on relevant and high-quality resources.
- Respect for Journal Publication Ethics and Instructions for Authors.
- Article submission in the journal’s template. Articles have to be submitted by email to aop@vse.cz.
