

Internal system for evaluating research units

The relative performance of individual faculties of VSE was assessed in the field of publishing performance using the following indicators: a total number of articles in WoS and Scopus databases in 2013–2017 / a total number of peer-reviewed articles in the 2013–2017 period, a total number of articles in Czech journals in WoS and Scopus databases in the 2013–2017 period / a total number of articles in WoS and Scopus databases in the 2013-2017 period, a total number of articles in Political Economy and Prague Economics Papers in the 2013-2017 period/ a total number of articles in WoS and Scopus databases in the 2013 –2017 period, an average mark of selected results of individual faculties within Module I, M 17+, a number of results in Q1 and Q2 in the WoS database under Module II, M17+, and faculty results in the VSE publishing competitions in the 2013–2017 period.

The relative performance of individual faculties of VSE was evaluated in the area of grant activity performance using the following indicators: financial value of Czech external grants converted to 1 of the so-called Full Time Equivalent in the 2013–2017 period, financial value of foreign external grants in the 2013–2017 period, a total value of foreign external grants in the 2013-2017 period / a total value of external grants in the 2013-2017 period, grant success rate in the 2013-2017 period, projects not completed and terminated in the 2013-2017 period.